By Abishek R.

Sometimes, I realize, a lot of guys have face a problem: they don't know how to move their 'normal' interactions with women into 'sexual' ones... really fast. And, when they don't know WHAT to do and HOW to do that, it can become quite frustrating.

But, as a man, it's your job to take the lead. In fact, a lot of women complain that men often don't escalate fast. I have lost a lot of opportunity for sex because I was too hesitant to escalate things to the next level.

What is escalation?

Escalation has to do with anything that moves the interaction closer to sex.... such as touching, kissing, hugging, or sexualizing the conversation.

So, whenever you're clueless on how to take things to the next level, use this guide as your go-to-source.

But before I let you in all the secret ways to ramp up the escalation and sexual tension so that you can take her to your bedroom fast... there are certain important points you need to remember:

“5 Essential Points to Remember”

#1: Touching her as soon as possible

It's better to break the touch barrier as soon as you can. If you wait for a looooooong time to touch her, well it might seem weird and awkward. Instead, if you want to escalate things to the bed, make sure to break that touch barrier by touching her as soon as possible, which is usually when you first meet her.

For example: During the day, you could shake her hand, or kiss her on the cheek. During the night at the bar you might give her a high five and/or put your arms around her.

Likewise, on your first date, you might give her a hug as you greet her. Keep reading because in the next section, I'll reveal you 9 types of touching.

#2: Taking Two Steps Forward and One Step Back

If you keep putting on the gas, obviously, she'll try to go in slow and put on the brakes. So instead of escalating the touch as much as you can, try to take a step back. Why? Because, touching releases oxytocin - a feel-good bonding hormone - and make her feel good.

When you stop touching for, then she'll want to feel good again. She'll want you to touch her. But if you keep on touching her or escalating without stopping then she'll most likely get freaked out.

For example:

1. Place your arms around her back and tell her you like her... but then turn away from her.
2. Kiss her, but then end the tongue wrestling even before she does... saying, "Hey, that's all you get. No more for you today."
3. "I would so throw you against the wall and have my way with you right now; too bad, there are all these people here."

#3. Practice saying sexual things casually

If you asked, "What's your favorite sexual position?" in a slow and seductive tone (you'll learn later in this report) it might come off as too sleazy or cheesy. Instead, you might want to say sexual things like you're having a normal conversation, as if it's totally no big deal for you to talk about sexual things. This displays that you're totally comfortable and secure in your sexuality;

When's the best time to use the slow and seductive voice?

The best time to use seductive voice is when you're giving a direct complement during the day (in a bar or a club), while you're talking about non-sexual things either before or during foreplay. For best results, you can say sexual things in a casual voice or casual things in a sexual voice.

Of course, there are many different ways you can be sexual about, but make sure you don't overdo it.

#4: Don't be shy (afraid) to talk about sex

Most women love sex, although it may vary between women to women and different cultures. In fact, it's the most talked about topic on the cover of women's magazines.

So that means you don't have to feel ashamed or afraid of bringing it up in your interactions with her. I recommend bringing the topic of sex indirectly at first, such as through a game or story (you'll discover how to do that in this report later), before going direct with the line such as, "I'm going to have my way with you."

Being direct works best later in the interaction when she is already really turned on by you.

Word of Caution: Now, of course, these methods won't work unless you understand how to truly communicate with women. Women speak in secret language, and the only way to master the art of talking to women is to grab a copy of Daytime Pickup Secrets: The Natural Progression

Now, let me tell you about...

“9 Types of Touching”

Here are 9 different ways you can initiate touch with a women:

1. Friendly touch: You can initiate a touch with her when greeting or saying goodbye with a handshake, a hug, or a kiss on the cheek.

2. Conversation: You can also initiate a touch by using your hands as you talk to her... touching her arm, shoulder, or hand to make a point.

For example: Say "and guess what happened next?" and follow up with touch on her arm for emphasis.

3. Inquiring: Touch her hair, nails, or something she's wearing and comment on it.

For example: "Wow I like those nail polish you're wearing," as you hold her hands and look analyze them.

4. Leading: While leading her from one place to the next, you can hold her hand or even go in arm-in-arm.

5. Correcting: Fix something about her like her hair, clothing, or posture.

For example: "Hey, hold on for a second. Let me correct your shirt. Okay, there you go. Much better."

6. Punishing: Playfully slapping her butt or her hand whenever she does something bad. For this to work, you need to have a high level of compliance with her (meaning, you must already have kissed her before).

For example: "Woooooh, you're being bad. Wait, let me see your hand." And when he gives her hand, you slap her. "Next time, it will be on your ass."

7. Rewarding: Whenever she does something good, reward her with a high-five, a huge, or a kiss.

For example: "Good answer/attitude. High-five for that!"

8. Playful: Play fun games with her like thumb wrestling or slap hands.

9. Direct: Taking her and having your with her. Of course, you need a high level of attraction and compliance from her (you already kissed her before doing this). You go for a kiss, pulling her hair, and/or initiating foreplay.

The following are some of my favorite ways to escalate with her physically and verbally (sexually). Enjoy!

“Restrictions”

People want what they can't have. So if you want her to want something badly simply tell her she can't have it.

Here's an example of a conversation:

Me: Hey, I want to have sex with you.

Her: Uh huh, I am NOT having sexy with you tonight.

Me: Well, I change my mind, you can't have sex with me (restriction)

Her: (shocked/ confused look on her face)

Her: Why not?!

Result: Later, the girl went on to validate herself and try to make him to say he wanted to have sex with her.

Here are few more examples:

Me: (On a date) "Hey, you're pretty cool. I am starting to like you more. But, you know what? We can't have sex with you tonight."

After you kiss her, pull away first and say, "That's all you get. No more."

Take her to your place and say, "We can go inside but you'll have to behave yourself."

As you are escalating, if you feel that she is going to stop the momentum you can stop it right away and say, "Wow, it feels so goooooo. You are turning me on so much. I think we must stop."

Now go out and make it happen
